HOTEL LUCERNE

201 WEST SEVENTY-NINTH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

ARTHUR T. HARDY, Managing Director

Located between Central Park and Riverside Drive, on one of the most desirable corners of the exclusive residential district of the upper west side, in close proximity to all lines of Transit and within ten minutes ride of Grand Central Station, Pennsylvania Terminal, Theatre and Shopping districts.

The Hotel is strictly fireproof, overlooks the beautiful Hudson River and Jersey Shore, and is noted for its atmosphere of home-like comfort.

The Apartments are arranged in Suites of one to six Rooms and Baths. Exceptionally large closets. The unfurnished Suites are leased by the year and furnished apartments are rented on a weekly basis or transiently as desired.

The Dining Room, with its attractive furnishings, perfect ventilation and unexcelled service, makes it the rendezvous of a discerning clientele.

A la Carte service from 6:30 a. m. to 1 a. m. Also Table D'Hote and Club Breakfasts. An especially attractive Grill and Cafe. Music.

PARCEL POST

Four ounces or less, one cent for each ounce or fraction of ounce, regardless of distance (domestic). More than four ounces based on pound rates.

PLACES WHERE PARCELS MUST BE MAILED

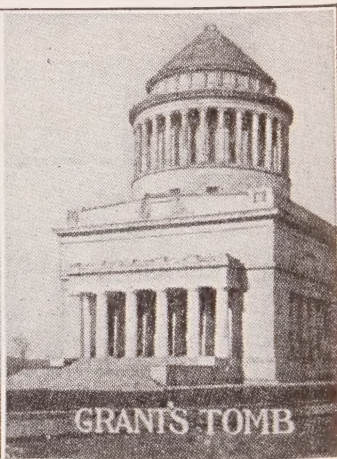

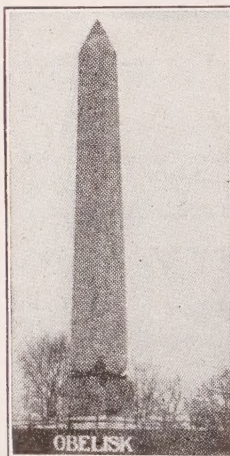

Parcels weighing over four ounces must be mailed at the General Post Office or at a lettered or local named station or branch post office, or such numbered stations as have been designated to receive parcel post matter.

Uninsured parcels weighing four ounces or less may be mailed at the most convenient point. They may be mailed in street package boxes and at all numbered stations as well as the General Post Office and carrier stations.

Parcels must bear the name and address of the sender, preceded by the word "From."

PARCELS MUST NOT BE SEALED

Parcels must be prepared in such manner that contents can be easily examined. Parcels which are sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or which contain or bear writing which is not permissible are subject to postage at the first-class (letter) rate and will be treated as first-class matter. If such a parcel exceeds four pounds in weight it is un-mailable.

Bird's-Eye View of Lower New York, showing the city with skyscrapers ranging from 10 to 50 stories high, built and purchased from the Indians by Peter Minuit in 1626. The ornaments valued at $20. The land value runs now at $100 per acre. Headquarters for the greatest Railroad, Steamship and manufacturing concerns in the world are here represented. Population of 2,435,102, according to the last census, but over 1,500,000 in business. Tunnels under the Hudson River connect the city to different points in Brooklyn.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Aldrich Court, 41 Broadway. Accepted as Manhattan Island. An enscribed tablet marks the site of the first habitation of white men on the spot.

American Museum of Natural History. Central Park West and Seventy-seventh St.

Aquarium. Battery Park, foot of Broadway. Originally erected as a fort called Castle Clinton.

Botanical Gardens at Bronx Park. Subway reaches direct.

Bowery. Word derived from Dutch word "bouwerijs." A walk along this street will lead through Chinatown and much of the Ghetto district.

Bowling Green. A small oval park at the foot of Broadway. Oldest in the city.

Cathedral of St. John the Divine. (Episcopal.) Cathedral Heights at 110th Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

City Hall. City Hall Park, Broadway from Chambers to Mail Streets. Governor's room in this building contains some very interesting paintings and Washington relics.

Columbia College. Morningside Heights. Called Kings College when established in reign of George II.

Cooper Union. Erected by Peter Cooper as a free library and lecture lyceum. Lincoln made his first speech in New York in this building.

Fraunce's Tavern. Pearl and Broad Streets. In this building Washington took leave of his aides before proceeding to the Capital to surrender his commission.

Grant's Tomb. Riverside Drive and 123rd Street. A truly wonderful memorial to a beloved and famous soldier-statesman.

Metropolitan Museum of Art. Central Park and 82nd Street. The most famous museum in America.

Obelisk. Near Metropolitan Museum of Art. Erected in Egypt and presented by the Khedive to this country. The cost of bringing it here was more than $100,000.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Pearl Street. At No. 81 is the site of the first public printer, William Bradford. At Broad and Pearl Streets is Fraunce's Tavern, mentioned above.

Public Library. Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street. Includes the old Astor, Lenox and Tilden libraries. Some of the oldest books in existence are on review here, also rare paintings and historic documents.

Statue of Liberty. Can be seen from Battery Park. Reached by boat from the same place, which runs on frequent schedule during warm weather.

St. Patrick's Cathedral. Fifth Avenue and 50th Street. The most prominent Roman Catholic Church in the city, and a beautiful specimen of church architecture.

St. Paul's Church. Broadway and Vesey Street. Attended by Washington, whose pew is marked by a tablet. The cemetery surrounding the church contains the graves of some famous people.

Sub-Treasury. Wall and Nassau Streets. On this site was read the Declaration of Independence in 1776. A fine statue of Washington stands on the steps.

Trinity Church. Broadway opposite Wall Street. The churchyard is of particular interest, owing to the fact that here are buried the remains of Robert Fulton, Alexander Hamilton and others of almost equal note.

Zoological Garden. Bronx Park. Take Subway. A day can be spent here to educational advantage.

FOREIGN SECTIONS

Chinese:—Mott Street is the heart of the Chinese district. Here may be seen a good portrayal of Chinese life in all phases.

Jewish:—The Jewish races are now scattered to various localities, but a walk along such streets as Broome, Allen and Hester will provide probably as many unusual sights as the average tourist will be interested in.

Italian:—Paradise Park, on Leonard Street, formerly Five Points, at one time was centre of the toughest aspects of city life. Now the centre of home life of Italian laboring classes.

SEEING NEW YORK

First Day

Morning.—Leaving Hotel, take Subway to Bowling Green. A stroll across Battery Park brings you to landing place of boats to the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island or Governor's Island, which run on frequent schedule during mild weather. On return of boat a visit should be made to the Aquarium. This is only a minute's walk from boat landing.

Afternoon.—Across from Battery Park is the new Custom House. In front of this is a small oval park, Bowling Green, as famous a landmark as there is in the city. A few minutes' walk east brings you to Pearl and Broad Streets, where is located Fraunce's Tavern. In this tavern Washington took leave of his aides when about to surrender his commission. Two blocks north of Broad Street are the Stock Exchange and Sub-Treasury. One block west, at Wall Street and Broadway, are Trinity Church and Cemetery.

Second Day

Morning.—Take Broadway car or subway to Fulton Street. On Broadway at Vesey Street are St. Paul's Church and Cemetery. Washington worshipped here and his pew may be seen. A block north is the Woolworth Building, highest in the world. Opposite is the Post Office, and just beyond are City Hall Park and the City Hall. On the east side of the Park is Newspaper Row. Walking north past City Hall, at Chambers and Centre Streets are the Hall of Records and the Municipal Building. Four blocks north on Centre Street, the Tombs and Criminal Court Buildings connected by the famous "Bridge of Sighs." Paradise Park, Bowery, and the Chinese and Jewish quarters are closely adjacent and the visitor can readily find them by inquiring the way of a passerby.

Afternoon.—Grace Church, Broadway and 10th Street, conveniently reached by Broadway car from hotel. A beautiful specimen of Gothic architecture. A few minute's walk in a southeasterly direction is Cooper Union. Lincoln made his first speech in New York in this building. Cross back one block beyond Broadway to Washington Square. Here are the memorial Arch and lower Fifth Avenue.

A bus can be taken here up Fifth Avenue to 42nd Street, noting as you go, Madison Square. The bus may be discarded at 29th Street and a visit paid to "The Little Church Around the Corner." At 42nd Street and Fifth Avenue should be noted the New York Public Library, with its vast quantities of books and the second best gallery of paintings in the city.

Third Day

Morning.—Take Fifth Avenue bus to Metropolitan Museum of Art and from there walk through Central Park to American Museum of Natural History.

Afternoon.—Ninth Avenue "L" to 125th Street and walk west to Riverside Drive and Grant's Tomb. Subway to Morningside Heights, to Columbia College, and Spanish-American Museum, Broadway and 156th Street.

Fourth Day

Subway to Bronx Park, Zoological Garden, and Van Cortland Park. Cars reach direct.

Dear Sir:-

I notice in Young's Hotel Directory, page 30, a list of museums and galleries among which should certainly be included The American Numismatic Society, at the above address.. This Society is a next door neighbor of the Hispanic Society of America, which I see is mentioned in your list. and ^{its} this museum is open to the public, without charge, every day..

Very truly yours,.
